

Artesian Collaborative Clinical Practicum Application Process

We are looking for an open-minded, curious learner that can bring their authentic self into our practice culture. Our supervision style is supportive, and our supervisors are transparent with their journey into the profession, remembering what it was like getting started in the field. Our services include clinical therapy, corporate training, and community partnerships.

Please visit the website, <https://www.artesiancollaborative.com/join> for more information.
